

ELECT
BROTHER STEVE WATKINS
for
GRAND COUNSELOR

Greetings Brothers of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. Before we know it we will be in the great city of Raleigh, North Carolina for our 76th Grand Conclave. Before we know it we will be presented with the very important task of electing our Grand Officers. It is with great humility that I seek to be your next Grand Counselor.

Men of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity are world class leaders and world class citizens. My vision is that we regain a position of prominence on all college and university campuses, that we sustain the highest level of support for our families and communities while maintaining leadership roles in all aspects of society.

I am prepared and qualified to serve you as your Grand Counselor.

With over sixteen years as an Omega Man I am prepared to serve as your next Grand Counselor. As a former District Counselor, First Vice District Representative, Basileus, Omega Man of the Year, Citizen of the Year and current chairman of the Grand Tribunal I am prepared to serve as your next Grand Counselor.

With over eighteen years of experience as a licensed attorney that concentrates in civil litigation, criminal litigation and real estate transactions I am qualified to be your next Grand Counselor. As a licensed real estate broker I am qualified to serve as your next Grand Counselor. As a certified civil litigation arbitrator I am qualified to serve as your next Grand Counselor.

If you want a Grand Counselor you can trust – Vote for Steve. If you want a Grand Counselor who has integrity – Vote for Steve. If you want a Grand Counselor who is committed to service – Vote for Steve. If you want a Grand Counselor who has a reputation of giving excellent advice and counsel – Vote for Steve.

Brothers I look forward to speaking with you and corresponding with you over the next several months regarding the election, regarding the Grand Counselor position, regarding what's on your mind. I am convinced that after we speak and correspond, that after you get to better know me and what I stand for then you will be prepared to Vote for Steve!

I will end with affirming that I am prepared and enthused to serve as your next Grand Counselor. I continue to request your support and your vote. If elected as Grand Counselor brothers can be assured of great leadership, a commitment to service, sound advice and counsel to the fraternity, and a man that is a true friend.

In the name of Omega,

Bro. Steven G. Watkins, Esq.
